

Sammie Brown Martin      Lifelong Rockledge Resident Councilwoman, Seat #3

Elected to Seat #3 in November 2017

- ☞ First African-American woman to serve on Rockledge City Council
-

Associated Positions Held:

- ☞ Former Member, Rockledge Board of Adjustment and Rockledge Code Enforcement Board
-

Community Involvement / Civic Organizations:

- ☞ Neighborhood Watch Coordinator
  - ☞ Former Secretary/Treasurer of the Cocoa/Rockledge Civic League
  - ☞ Lifetime member of the Central Brevard NAACP
  - ☞ Freelance Writer for Brevard Ebony Newspaper
  - ☞ Ordained Minister of the Church of God, Cleveland, Tennessee
  - ☞ Member of the Stone Street Church of God, Cocoa
  - ☞ Brevard Voluntary Organizations Active in Disasters (VOAD)
  - ☞ Alliance for Neighborhood Restoration (ANR) Youth Programs
  - ☞ NCBW College for Kids After School Mentoring Program
-

Education:

- ☞ Graduate of Rockledge High School
  - ☞ BA in English, St. Augustine's University, Raleigh, NC
  - ☞ Studied Journalism at Iowa State University
  - ☞ Paralegal studies at Eastern Florida State College, Cocoa
-

Career Highlights:

- ☞ Employed at Kennedy Space Center for more than 29 years
  - ☞ Worked on Shuttle Program in 2011
  - ☞ Served several Department of Defense contractors
  - ☞ Brevard County School Board, Substitute teacher
  - ☞ Brevard County mediator
  - ☞ Currently employed with the City of Titusville as a Procurement Analyst
-

Personal:

- ☞ Married to her husband, Dexter Martin, for 37 years; they have four children